- Assist with creating designs and developing a quality work product for a wide range of elements including ads, direct mail, sales collateral, web design, electronic media, and other marketing communications materials for promotional and educational applications
- Construct digital and mechanical prepress files for the Creative team with expert knowledge of resolutions, color and size accuracies
- Understand and apply creative concepts to tactical elements throughout marketing communications campaigns

The ideal candidate will:

- Have at least three years of graphic design experience, preferably at an agency
- Proven general graphic design skills. Creative vision for layout, typography and color
- Possess a high level of Powerpoint and Photoshop retouching experience
- Understand projects on a tactical level (design production, basic supervision, and project coordination)
- Possess strong typography skills including design and readability
- Must have high attention to detail
- Have demonstrated ability to create, design, and layout quality executions
- Perform successfully in a fast-paced environment
- Be able to work on multiple projects

If you meet the qualifications for the Graphic Designer role and share our company's values, we encourage you to submit your application. Please email your resume, portfolio samples and cover letter to hr@purohitnavigation.com. Refer to GD in the subject line.
